DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff, dedicate this 1959 Tiger Echo to the Football Team. We congratulate you for the fine playing and sportsmanship that you have shown throughout the season.

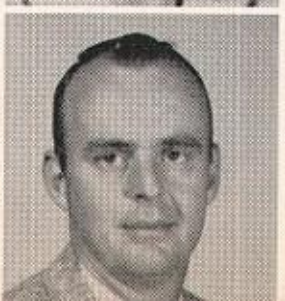

"I feel that a great deal of the success the team enjoyed was due to the contribution of these boys."

Gordon Brown
Head Coach

"All of the success we had this year has been due to the fact that all of the players have given 100% to the football team."

Joe Bright
Assistant Coach

"I believe there was no doubt about the team being made up of one of the finest groups of boys ever assembled here or anywhere."

Fred Ruland
Assistant Coach

On behalf of the board of education, faculty and student body let me express sincere appreciation to the staff and sponsor for this splendid edition of the Tiger Echo. This 1950 issue in recording the activities of the Katy schools is representative of the fine quality of work that exists throughout our entire school system.

Aside from the valuable experience that you have gained in producing this publication, I would remind you of the worthwhile service that you have rendered the student body and the community. This 1959 edition of the Tiger Echo will prove to be a lasting source of pleasant memories throughout the years to come.

A class always can use money so—
We sold banners at the football games.
We sold refreshments at the basketball games.
We sponsored receptions after football games.
The Methodist ladies honored us with a Hobo Party
We were also honored with a bar-be-que and dance given by some of the parents at the end of school.

One of the most important years in the life of a student is the junior year. It is the year next to the last and the year in which the class treats the senior class to the banquet and prom. This requires time, energy, and money. The first money-making project was the selling of ribbons for football games. A hobo party brought in some income in November.

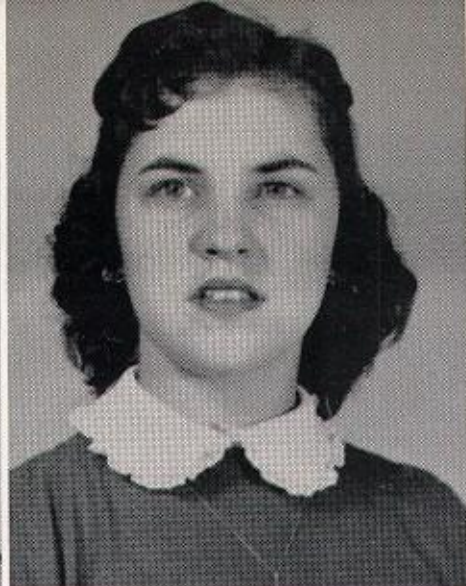

Christmas time led to the drawing of names and the exchanging of gifts . . . and two weeks of holidays.

February was the month for "Queen of Hearts." This year instead of being a Duke or Duchess they were "Colonels" and "Ladies" at which time George Farmer and Judy Dapslauf were chosen.

The class chose the theme of "Japanese Garden" for the banquet and prom with American food instead of Japanese food. The banquet proved to be a success and a day which the Seniors should never forget—at least not the Prophecy and Will.

The Class found the year full of needed events as well as just parties. The year was begun in early November with a Sadie Hawkins social followed by a dance held at the recreation hall at the Plant.

Christmas gifts were exchanged during that delightful season followed by a two-week holiday period.

The Class colors were turquoise and silver.

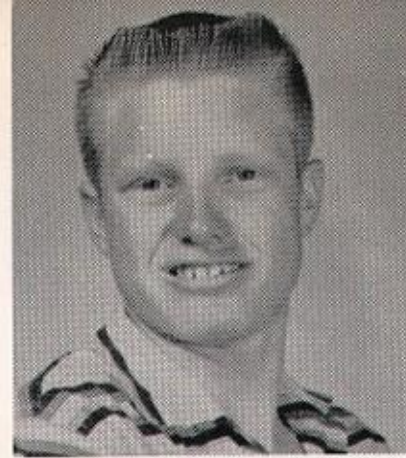

The motto selected was: "Anything worth doing, is worth doing well."

The song selected was "I Believe."

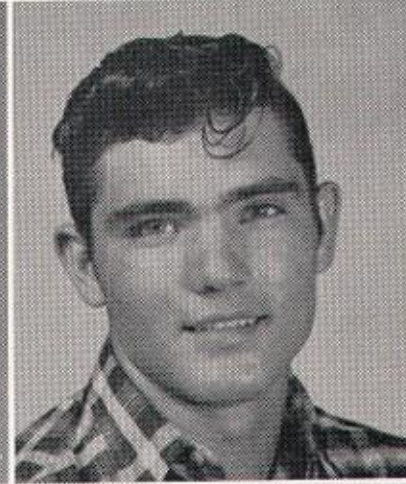

In April the class sponsored a "Talent Show." Ten cents was charged to each student who attended. If the student was not interested in the show he stayed in the study hall for a period of study. The treasurer reported a "good" deposit that day.

The treasurer's report in April indicated the class needed more money for the next year. A vote carried that the class sell homemade ice cream at both the swimming pool and skating rink through the month of June.

Miss Franz
Mr. Baker

The year 1959 has been a busy year for the Freshman class. They began the year with a hayride and dance followed by a swimming party in the spring. The one money-making project was a cake sale. The Class chose silver and pink as their colors, a pink rose for the flower, and its motto, "it's nice to be important but it's more important to be nice." Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Goynes, and Mrs. Minze were elected as room mothers.

ART

Art offers a wide variety for experiences and experiments in the visual arts and crafts.

This year fourteen students placed at the Scholastic Art Awards Southeastern Regional Exhibition held at Foley's. Those who received key awards are: Orval Rhoads, Janet Woods, Shirley Wilkinson, and Mary Ruth Vaughan. Others who placed were: Larry Arnold, Judy Beckendorff, Rosemary Farmer, Victoria Gonzales, Danny Griffin, Alfred Lentz, Lynn Linihan, Gabriel O'Con, Joan Woods, and John Rhodes. There were three finalists taken from the four keys to go to National at Pittsburgh. These were: Shirley Wilkinson, Orval Rhoads, and Janet Woods.

BUSINESS

To type accurately and quickly requires a great deal of concentration.

The business department, under the direction of Mrs. Roy Hamilton, consists of two typing I classes, a typing II class, shorthand, and bookkeeping. These are elective subjects.

Practice Sets in bookkeeping gave the students an idea of what it would be like to keep books for a business.

To obtain speed in shorthand, you must practice, practice, practice.

DRIVERS EDUCATION

Drivers Education is an elective subject designed to help students learn how to drive, rules for courteous driving, and the mechanics of a car.

At the end of the course a beginner's license may be obtained by taking a test.

A good driver knows the parts of his car, in order to keep it running smoothly and efficiently.

Learning how to use signals helps to make a better and a safer driver.

ENGLISH

Oral reports were given in Miss Swoetinsky's room.

2. Mrs. Reed Smith demonstrated cake decorating.
3. F.H.A. installation was a highlight for all members.
4. A window display for F.H.A. Week.
5. Child care.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Each section of the Eighth Grade spent part time in the mechanical drawing room drawing a project, then going to the shop to construct the project. The student must first learn the tools he will use. Both girls and boys use the saw, hammer, plane, and other hand tools to construct his project of wood.

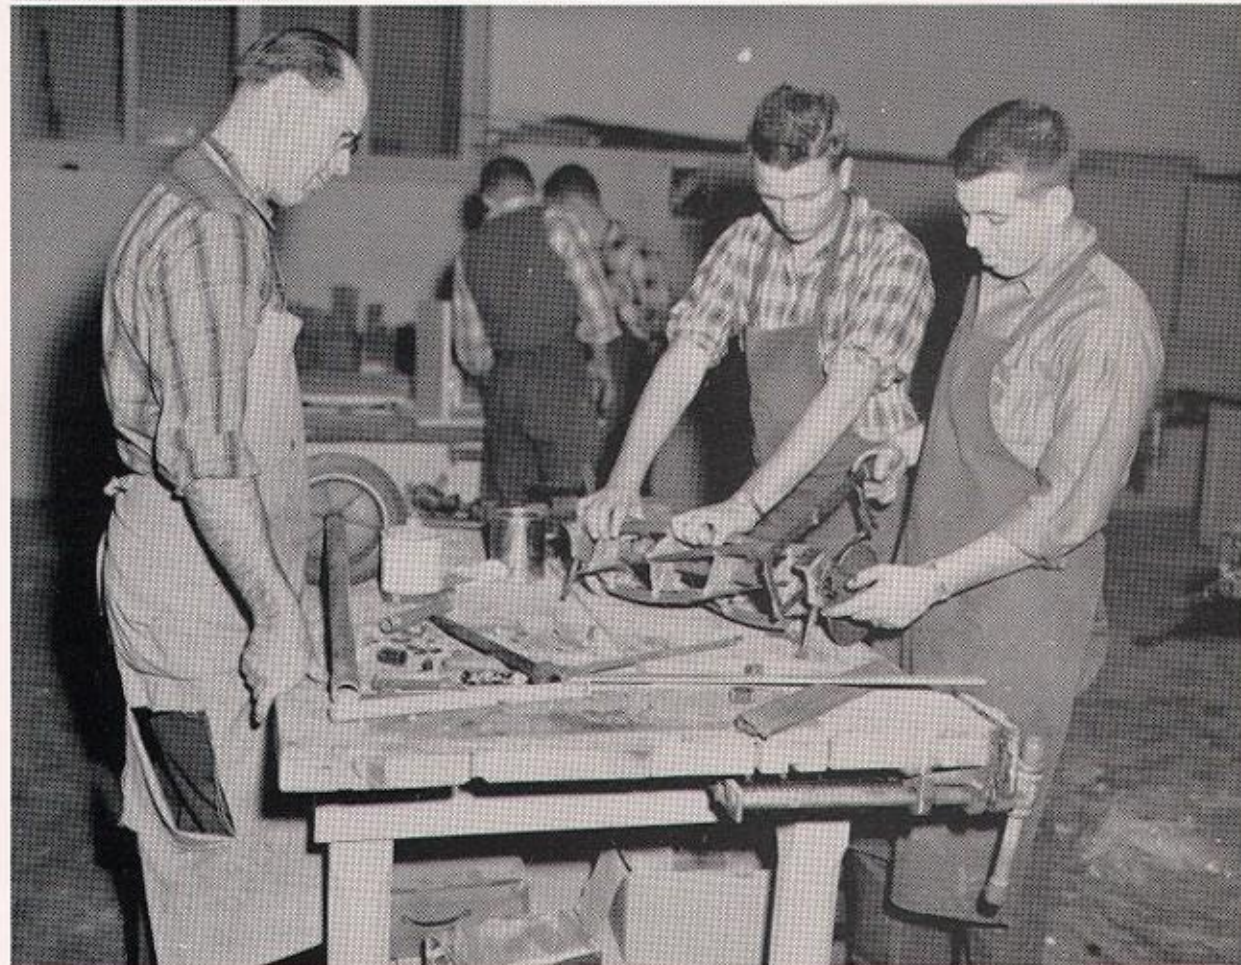

The shop project may be the repairing of some piece of machinery. It may be constructing machinery from parts of used machinery. The opportunity for the student in shop is great.

The second year student gets to use the power tools. This enables him to make almost any project of any size. Cedar chests to the twenty-foot boat were tackled this year.

Mechanical drawing is also offered. It permits the student to draw and read working drawings.

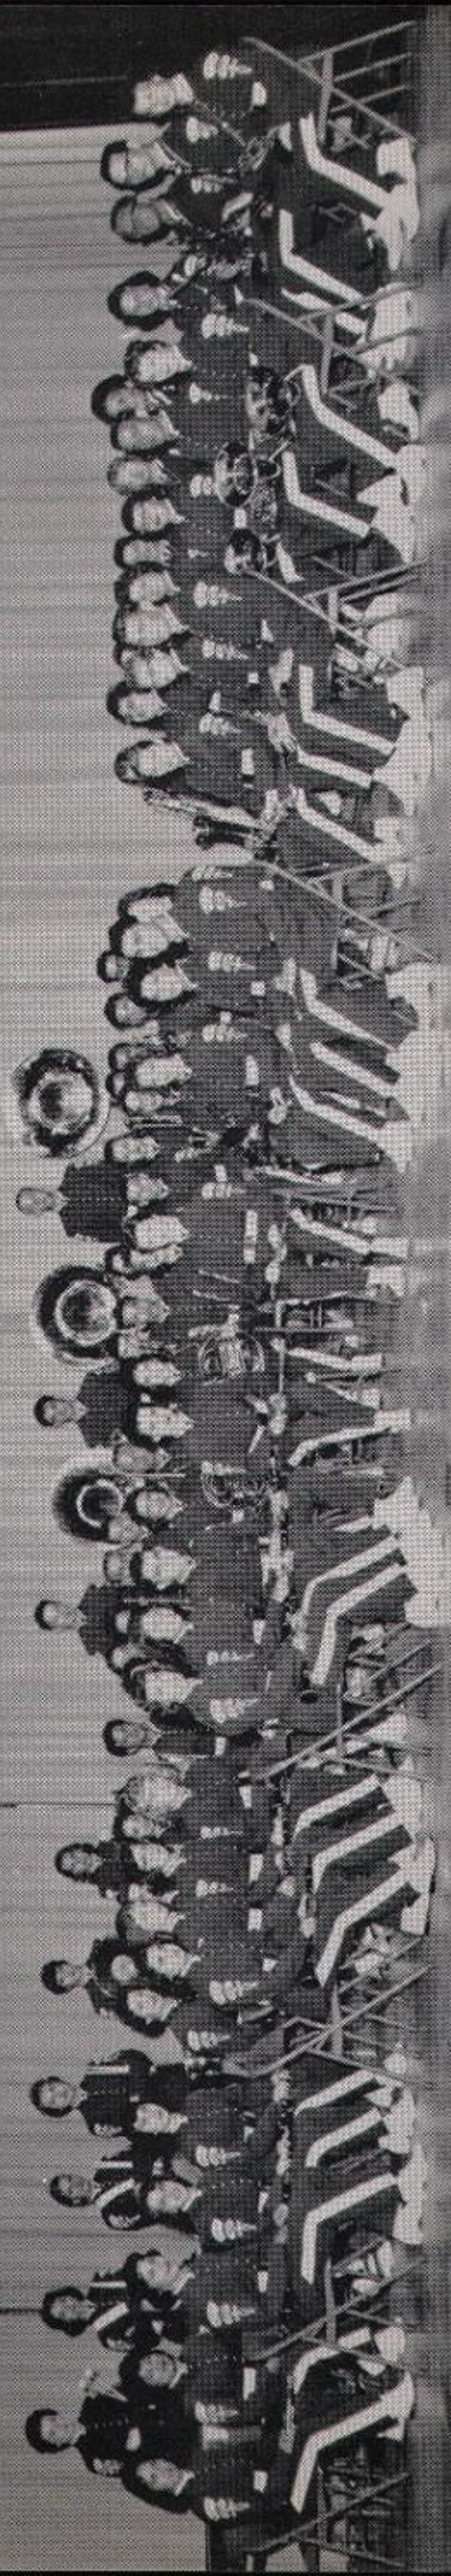

LIBRARY

The library has approximately 4500 books, about 45 different magazines, 1 local newspaper, 2 large city newspapers, and 2 county newspapers. It also has many film strips. This past year has revealed the fact that there have been more books checked out. The library is constantly adding more new books to meet the interest of as many students as possible.

BAND

MR. PHILIP G. BAKER, Director
Mr. Baker is also T.M.E.A. president.

Again this year the Band has given outstanding performance in all its activities. It again received the Sweepstakes Award for winning four First Divisions in marching, inspection, sight reading, and concert.

On Wednesday, March 11, the Civics class traveled to the State Capitol in Austin. They visited the Court of Criminal Appeals, the House of Representatives, and the Senate. After eating lunch they went to the Supreme Court Room and then they all shook hands with the Governor, Price Daniel.

FOURTH GRADE

The fourth graders have enjoyed a very exciting year. The high points or main events were making ceramic pieces in art, tours of the high school departments, and visits to the city library. The fourth graders also took part in the homecoming football game.

FOURTH GRADE

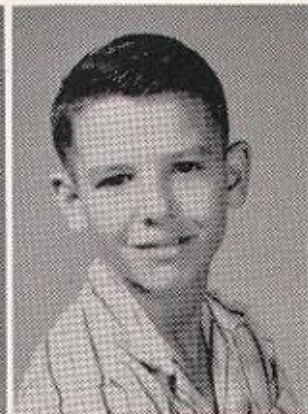

Through the efforts of the fourth grade parents and the leadership of the room mothers, Mrs. Gregory Longenbough, and Mrs. William Cardiff, have won the P.T.A. attendance award three times. With the money they have purchased ten new library books, an incubator which will enable them to watch the actual "hatching" of a chicken.

The imaginary journeys through Geography and Science have been numerous.

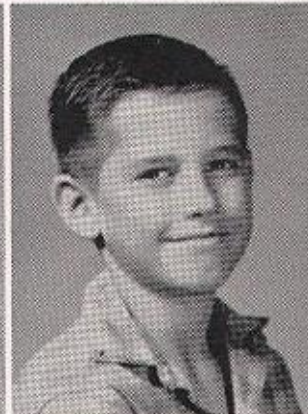

Mr. Harris introduced Mrs. Waldrip's fourth graders to foreign language and taught them many Spanish words.

The parents were entertained with a "Clothing" Program as a culminating activity in Social Studies.

The most interesting art activity and favorite subjects were yarn painting, birds and butterflies.

The highlight of the third grade activities was the field trip to Houston with lunch at Hermann Park. They enjoyed guided tours of the Carnation Milk Company, the Airport and other places of interest.

SECOND GRADE

Mrs. Caper's room had enjoyment studying the life cycle of butterflies and moths.

Last September eggs and caterpillars of the Swallowtail butterfly were found on some citrus branches. These were put into a jar, fed, watched, and seen change into a chrysalis and emerge into a butterfly in the Spring.

FIRST GRADE

Mrs. Leggett's room.

Thirty-five strong, we have had a good year, in spite of a sweeping seige of the mumps and other maladies. We celebrated Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays with parties and enjoyed the other usual round of parties—Christmas, Halloween, Valentine, Easter, etc. For Queen of Hearts we did "Shortnin' Bread" in "black face." We enjoyed a visit from a couple of talking parrots.

Mrs. Hutsell's room gave us a puppet show.

FIRST GRADE

"There's no grade like the first grade," as Mrs. Pattison put it. Halloween and Christmas were two days the first graders will never forget. Among the many activities the children took part in were the letters to the President and the pet shop in which they had every animal imaginable.

KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Allison's Kindergarten had many varied experiences this year. A real baby alligator, a baby goat, a pet rabbit, a hamster, several turtles, and other animals were brought to the room.

Western Day was observed with food served chuck wagon style.

The Queen of Hearts and Mother's Day Tea were two other highlights.

Story telling time gives the child experiences with the story.
